

OLD MORRISON, TRANSYLVANIA COLLEGE

West Third Street between Upper Street and Broadway, Lexington

Transylvania College, chartered by the Virginia Legislature in 1783 when Kentucky was still a part of the Old Dominion, is one of the oldest institutions of higher learning west of the Appalachians. Old Morrison, the college's impressive Greek Revival centerpiece, was built in 1831–1834 from designs by Gideon Shryock. Following a fire in 1969, the interior was reconstructed within the old shell, but the exterior, dominated by a pedimented Doric portico, is unchanged.
